

Georgia Skills Road Show

March 29, 2016: 11 am – 12:15 pm:
German Studies Skills and Career Fair
Catered Luncheon 12:30 – 1:45 pm
Kennesaw State University

Where: KSU Carmichael Student Center – University Rooms A-E

Directions and Parking: See Campus Map at <http://www.kennesaw.edu/maps/>

The Georgia Skills Initiative Roadshow and KSU German Studies Skills and Career Fair connect students, faculty, staff, and community-business leaders. Creating a forum for mutual learning and heightened understanding, invited participants inform about opportunities, qualifications, and requirements necessary for students to succeed professionally. Participation is free of charge.

Presenters are invited according to expertise and seniority, current and future commitment to internships, training programs, and collaborative partnering with KSU and the German Studies program. Presenters hail from a cross-section of German and international business and industry, the non-profit sector, and educational institutions. After introductory presentations, there will be information-sharing and networking at each presenter’s table for approx. followed by lunch 12:30 – 1:30 pm. Please register here:
