

GEORGIA DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Dual Enrollment Credit

Quick Reference Guide

FY 2015

Dual Enrollment Area	Who is eligible to take dual enrollment courses?	Is college admission required to participate?	Part or full-time student status required?	What courses are available?	Which campus does the student attend for the dual enrollment courses?	What credit will be earned?	Who pays for the dual enrollment courses?	Does the local school system lose local funding for these dual enrolled students?	Will dual enrollment courses count against the Hope scholarship hours cap?
Accel	Eligible student in grades 9-12 seeking a high school diploma from an eligible Georgia high school	Dual enrollment students must meet Accel and GaDOE guidelines and apply and be accepted at an eligible postsecondary institution	Full-time, which is 12-15 semester hours (4 courses) per semester Or part-time	Approved academic courses on the Accel course list	At or through the high school or college where the student is dual enrolled or online	Students simultaneously earn credit toward their high school diploma and college credit toward a certificate, diploma or degree	The Georgia Student Finance Commission will coordinate payment to the eligible postsecondary institution using state approved funding	No, beginning Fall 2011, the local system began receiving state funding	No, hours will not count against the cap
Hope Grant	Eligible student in grades 9-12 seeking a high school diploma from an eligible Georgia high school	Dual enrollment students must meet the dual enrollment guidelines and the postsecondary institution requirements	Full-time, which is 12-15 semester hours (4 units) per semester Or part-time	Approved courses on Dual Enrollment Matrix Course Directory	At or through the high school or college where the student is dually enrolled or online	Students simultaneously earn credit toward their high school diploma and college credit toward a certificate or diploma	The Georgia Student Finance Commission will coordinate payment to the eligible postsecondary institution using state approved funding	No, beginning Fall 2011, the local system began receiving state funding	No, HOPE Grant dual enrollment hours taken by high school students will not count against the cap

Dual Enrollment Area	Who is eligible to take dual enrollment courses?	Is college admission required to participate?	Part Time or Full Time Status required?	What courses are available?	Which campus does the student attend for the dual enrollment courses?	What credit will be earned?	Who pays for the dual enrollment courses?	Does the local school system lose local funding for these dual enrolled students?	Will dual enrollment courses count against the Hope scholarship hours cap?
Move On When Ready	Any high school junior or senior who is enrolled full-time and meets all eligibility requirements	MOWR enrollment students must meet all MOWR requirements of the law, GaDOE, and the eligible postsecondary institution	Must be full-time 12-15 semester hours (4 courses) per semester	Approved academic, career technical, fine arts and elective courses and courses on the MOWR Supplemental Course List	At or through the college where the student is dually enrolled or online	Students simultaneously earn credit toward their high school diploma and college credit toward a certificate, diploma or degree	The Georgia Department of Education will coordinate payment to the eligible postsecondary institution using the system's FTE funding	Yes, the system will not receive FTE funding for the MOWR student, but will receive $200 annually per MOWR student for administrative costs	No
Articulation	Any 9-12 grade students at schools with Articulated Credit Agreements	No, but student may be required to pass college exam to receive credit	Neither, student is taking high school classes that will earn college credit	Any courses that have local or state articulated agreements	High school campus	High school and college-based on the conditions of the local written agreement	No cost since the course is a regular high school course the college is agreeing to grant college credit	No effect on local system funding	No
Early College	High school juniors at designated program sites	Same as Accel	Full-time or part-time	Approved Accel course list or Dual Enrollment Matrix	College/High School	Simultaneous earn high school and college credit	Funded through Accel /Hope Grant/or FTE	No	No

Dual Enrollment Area	Who is eligible to take Dual Enrollment Courses?	Is college admission required to participate?	Part Time or Full Time Status required?	What courses are available?	Which campus does the student attend for the dual enrollment courses?	What credit will be earned?	Who pays for the dual enrollment courses?	Does the local school system lose local funding for these dual enrolled students?	Will dual enrollment courses count against the Hope scholarship hours cap?
Gateway to College (Georgia Perimeter College & Savannah Technical College)	Dropouts or youth not on track to graduate at least 16 yrs. old & 6 high school units	Yes, but it is a small learning community high school within a college campus	Full-time	High school courses meeting graduation requirements and follow high school calendar	College campus	High school/College	Funded through Accel/HOPE Grant/Scholarship through Gates Foundation	No, still receives FTE funding	No
Residential (West Georgia & Middle Georgia College)	Academically gifted juniors or seniors who want to take advanced studies and meet program requirements	Must apply and be accepted at an eligible postsecondary institution	Full-time	College	College	High school/College	Funded through Accel/HOPE Grant/FTE /Student payment	School may not receive FTE funding in some situations	No
Joint Enrollment	Not a dual program	Yes	Part-time	Any courses the college offers	College	College only	HOPE Grant /Scholarship or the Student	No	Yes, courses count against cap