2018 World Languages Collaborative unConference in Savannah
Saturday, October 20, 2018

![Unconference Logo]

Are you curious about how other language teachers keep students in the target language?
Are you interested in learning about the benefits of flipping a World Languages Classroom?
Do you wonder how other teachers set proficiency goals and assess proficiency?

If you answer yes to these or any other World Languages-related questions, then you are invited to the World Languages Collaborative unConference in Savannah, Georgia.

- Join us for a World Languages resource exchange and discussions
- Swap ideas for technology resources, instructional strategies, assessment ideas, and more
- Network with other K-16 World Languages educators in the Savannah area in public, private, and charter institutions

Schedule:

- 8:30 – 9:00 Registration, coffee, short meeting
- 9:00 – 9:30 Explanation and overview of unConference
- 9:30 - 10:20 First sessions
- 10:20 – 10:30 Break
- 10:30 – 11:20 Second sessions
- 11:20 – 11:30 Break
- 11:30 - 12:20 Third sessions
- 12:30 - 1:00 Debriefing, Reflection, Wrap-Up, and Prizes

Location of Conference:

Georgia Southern University – Armstrong Campus – Gamble Hall
11935 Abercorn Street, Savannah, GA 31419
An unConference is a spontaneous, discussion-based gathering of educators in which there is no presider or leader; rather, participants will actively engage with one another and share strategies for what works and what does not work when helping students acquire a second language. Participants will determine the day’s topics during the online registration process.

Registration:

This event is FREE!

Register at this link: https://goo.gl/forms/fm4JUfr8DQwXdAgF2 by Friday, October 19, 2018. Invite your colleagues!