GHP 2013 Dance Themes

On each of the three Saturday nights and the final Friday night we host a dance for our fabulous students, and no nerd camp worth the name would have a dance without a theme, right? So as you start to pack, consider including a couple more items. (What—you've already packed? Start over!)

Gargantuan Heroic Promenade
In our opening dance you'll be putting your underwear on the outside of your pants, adopting incredible capes, donning mystical rings, and more as we embrace all superheroes. But that's not enough. While The Daily Planet and The Daily Bugle are fine day jobs, there are no superheroes without their super-villain counterparts. You're encouraged to team up with hallmates, friends, and frenemies to create your own League of Legends or Mess of Maniacs. We'll provide the tunes, you provide the comic-worthy antics.

The Great Halves are Paired
East meets West in our second dance of the summer. Whether you're a rootin' tootin' cowboy at heart or a Ming dynasty princess we'll have something for you to shake your chaps/kimono to. Loose interpretations of "East" and "West" encouraged!

Ghastly Halloween Party
Ooooh sp-sp-spoooky. Let's get creepy, crawly, and downright weird at our third dance of the summer with an extra dose of magic on the Magic Square. Witches and wizards and monsters are all invited to this graveyard smash. This is your chance to be whoever you were born to be, one night only. Makeup, wigs, and period costume will be quite stunning next to garish spiders and zombie presidents. We'll Tri--err--Treat you right.

Graffiti: How Perfect
The Governor's Honors Program wouldn't be the same without our traditional last night dance. You provide the white t-shirt; we'll provide the Sharpies™. Your loyal DJs will pull out all the stops and highlight the best music of the summer in addition to a beautiful rock ballad or two to hug and sway. It's okay to bawl at this ball as you sign each other's shirts and remember how far you've come.
