Externship Expectations

- Teachers will spend 3 days out of the classroom, with a host business, learning about a high-demand or locally-prominent industry.
- Externships are an opportunity for teachers to observe and interact with business professionals in a setting that better replicates the speed and demands of an existing industry.
- Teachers who participate in an externship should be able to identify demonstrable links between theoretic knowledge taught in the classroom to those skills being used in the workplace.
- Externships assist with the development of professional connections related to the appropriate subject areas that should be utilized in the classroom, on advisory councils and in testing and assessments.
- Teachers that complete an externship have more understanding of the workplace trends that are changing how business is conducted, to include skill deficiency/development, technology and tool or utensil advancement and economic factors influencing short- and long-term outlooks.

Business Benefits

- The host company will have a local point of contact in their community that will serve to help businesses better understand the governance and management of a school system.
- The company will be able to have its leaders share the vision and mission of the company, give first-hand accounts of the issues influencing industry and highlight what their specific local needs are that may be different from other hiring organizations.
- Time during the externship will include practical, hands-on experience with various employees/positions that can be documented and replicated in the classroom or laboratory to help tie lessons learned with technical application.
- In addition to providing materials (clothing, safety and other protective gear, tools) needed to perform the externship, the host company will identify with their externs with a list of items required to remain compliant, safe and productive when working under typical conditions.
- Business and Industry leadership that promotes and supports meaningful partnerships with their local education counterparts gain access to their talent development pipeline at earlier opportunities that result in positive effects on student outcomes and engagement with future employees.
OVERVIEW OF EXTERNSHIP GUIDE

This Educator Externship Guide is designed to provide both the participating educators and host business sites with information and documents that frame the experience. Components have been adapted from several national models that include the Nebraska Work-based Learning Manual (http://www.nebraskaworkplaceexperiences.com/), the Nashville Tennessee Externship Project (http://ltd.edc.org/sites/ltd.edc.org/files/KantrovWhitePaper2.pdf), the Licking County Educational Service Center (www.lcesc.org/Downloads/E%20What%20is%20the%20STEP%20Program.doc), the Career Academy Support Network, University of California at Berkeley (http://casn.berkeley.edu/resources.php?r=251).

This document will also be provided electronically to participating educators, so they can use it to complete requirements of the project.

EXTERNSHIP GOALS

An externship is a professional learning opportunity that allows educators to complete a period of service in the workplace. This collaborative experience gives educators and business professionals a structured time to connect with one another for mutual learning so that educators ultimately enhance instructional practices that result in improved student performance.

In summary, the Educator Externship experience seeks to:

- Increase awareness and knowledge of labor market trends including changing work competencies and attitudes.
- Give a realistic perspective of today's workplace and the skills students need to succeed.
- Provide an opportunity to gather information for designing curriculum and improving core indicators.
- Offer educators rich professional learning to enhance subject expertise and explore new teaching/counseling strategies.
- Increase awareness of career pathway potential in occupational areas.
- Give business professionals and educators an opportunity to have a constructive dialogue.
- Enable businesses to actively support workforce development.
- Build collaborative partnerships between education and business & industry.
- Define employability skills development needed by business & industry.
Business partners will have the opportunity to:

- Make a positive impact on classroom curriculum and instructional practices.
- Aid in preparing students with the skills they need to enter the workforce.
- Gain a realistic perspective about teaching and learning in schools today.
- Develop personal connections with educators and students.

Educators will have an opportunity to:

- Gain an understanding of the skills needed in today's workplace.
- Develop personal connections with business professionals.
- Increase knowledge of changing workplace competencies and attitudes.
- Obtain a better understanding of the post-secondary requirements students need.
- Examine new teaching strategies reflected in business organization structures (i.e. team approach, project management).

Students will have an opportunity to:

- Understand and experience how school learning relates to the workplace.
- Identify the skills and competencies required in the workplace and in post-secondary education.
- Participate in an active and content-relevant learning environment.
- Experience a curriculum that employs real world applications.
How can I translate the experiences from the externship to my everyday educational practice?

It is important that the externship have meaning for the educator and the business partner and provide information that will translate into activities that prepare students for the future. The externship should also help the educator meet their curriculum and professional goals.

The following are four basic elements of a successful and meaningful externship experience:

- Ownership: Both the educator and the business partner must be invested in the development of a meaningful externship and follow-up in the classroom.

- Input: By linking the externship to curriculum and the Skills for College and Career Readiness (http://cte.ed.gov/employabilityskills/), an employability skills framework will be created to enable the educator and the business partner to understand that the work they are doing together will become part of what is taught in the classroom and will contribute to students’ employability.

- Reflection: The externship will present the educator with new information which needs to be incorporated into everyday educational practice. Time is required for understanding the connection between educators and the world of work. Host site partners also need to understand the school environment, by observing and asking questions, of the educator.

- Accountability: The externship is a means to an end; that end is improved student learning and quality professional development for educators. As a result, instructional methods change to reflect the way "business" is conducted in the world of work. Ultimately, the collaborative partners are accountable, along with the extended community, for providing youth with the knowledge and tools they need for the future.
Individuals require many skills to be college and career ready, including academic knowledge, technical expertise, and a set of general, cross-cutting abilities called employability skills. Employability skills are general skills that are necessary for success in the labor market at all employment levels and in all sectors. These skills have a number of names – soft skills, workforce readiness skills, career readiness skills – but they all speak to the same set of core skills that employers want. The Employability Skills Framework is a one-stop resource for information and tools to inform the instruction and assessment of employability skills.

Dear Possible Externship Host Manager, Owner, or Head of Human Resources:

Please let me take this opportunity to introduce the idea of your company hosting an educator extern. As you are probably aware, employer surveys (conducted both locally and nationally) conclude that most entry-level workers lack the basic skills and knowledge needed to be immediately productive in the workplace. In response to these trends, Name of Your School is working to increase student achievement and motivation through new teaching and learning strategies. This includes employers, administrators, teachers, counselors, parents and community working more closely together. Using an innovative curriculum, hands-on real-world projects, and workplace experiences Name of Your School seeks to integrate the foundation skills of reading, writing, and math with workplace skills such as problem solving, critical thinking, teamwork, and use of technology to prepare all students for college and careers.

The educator externship is designed to expose teachers to careers and work environments so they can work with high school students more effectively. This is an opportunity for teachers to observe first-hand what the 21st century workplace entails and to interact with business professionals. Additionally, the externship allows teachers to provide links between the skills and knowledge taught in the classroom and those being used in the workplace so that educators can better prepare young people for the workplace and the challenges therein.

Here’s how you can help. We are planning educator externships for Dates of Externship. The externship should last three complete days. If you have any questions or need additional information please contact List Contact Person (i.e. CTAE Director) at Contact Person’s Phone Number.

Sincerely,
