Educators Spotlight!

Congratulations to Mrs. Negroni for being recognized as the World Language Educator of the Month for March. We had the absolute pleasure of surprising Mrs. Negroni with the award on March 13th at Effingham County High School, where she teachers Spanish 2, 3 and AP Spanish. We loved the following comments submitted as part of her nomination, “Mrs. Negroni is an exemplar to teachers everywhere. She is always willing to help teachers and students alike with a ready smile on her face. Students love and respect Mrs. Negroni and she is always able to get the best out of them.”
• Cobb county district world language coordinator takes part in Read across America by participating by reading Green Eggs and Ham by Dr. Seuss in Spanish with the kids from the Dual Language Immersion Program at Nickajack Elementary School in Cobb County! Muchas Gracias Señor Suarez! The power of 2nd language learning and DLI to impact the overall literacy of children and propel them toward even greater heights of cognitive and academic excellence should not be underestimated!

• Congratulations to Dr. Jon Valentine, World Language Director for Gwinnett County, for being named the recipient of this year’s SCOLT Leadership Award! Dr. Valentine has served in his current position since 2013. Prior to this position, he also served as the Program Specialist for World Languages at the Georgia Department of Education for over 4 years and is a former German teacher.

Programs Spotlight!

• On March 3rd, Georgia was proud to host the nation’s first World Language Statewide Job Fair at Whitewater High School in Fayette County. We sincerely appreciate the many school systems that came out to speak with potential candidates and the participation of the Georgia Professional Standards Commission for being on hand to answer certification questions for job seekers. We also thank Georgia Virtual for also attending and speaking with job seekers about the possibility of online world language teaching. Georgia State University’s Team was also on hand to talk about their new Immersion Education Endorsement. We hope to build on this success for future events! For more job announcements please see the openings listed later in this update!

- Georgia’s first World Language Leadership Institute got off to a great start with great professional development and participation from all attendees! Presentations on Proficiency teaching and best practices for administrators when evaluating world language classrooms from Georgia’s World Language Educator of the Month for September, Mrs. White. A great presentation from Cobb county on their integration of proficiency targets in the curriculum, a great presentation from EF tours on their immersion trips, a time of evaluation of the competitive DLI grant proposals and much more! A special thanks to our friends from higher education and from other states for joining us! Your insight is appreciated and valued!

- We had a wonderful time today at Coastal Plains RESA, sharing the latest information on world language programs, the Seal of Biliteracy, The International Skills Diploma Seal, Immersion education, networking together and examining the ACTFL Can Do Statements and finishing up with a discussion of the economic connections between language and business! Fantastic world language educators in south Ga! We look forward to continuing our program “Leading with Languages for All of Georgia” as we travel throughout the state supporting administrators and teachers in rural districts across our state!
• 15 French teachers recently participated in the training: “How to integrate Francophonie in the classroom” sponsored by the Alliance Française d'Atlanta and supported by the French Consulate of Atlanta. We so appreciate our cultural partners and the support they provide our world language teachers across Georgia! You can find out more about other events related to the Francophonie 2018 by visiting their website.

• 21 students from Ridgeview Middle School have been invited to go to Japan! They will be participating in the KAKEHASHI Project this March. The "KAKEHASHI Project -The Bridge for Tomorrow- Youth Exchange Program with North America" is a new initiative which provides for a fully funded 9-day study tour to Japan. State School Superintendent, Mr. Richard Woods, posed with the group and the General Consul of Japan and Consul Ohyama on March 12th before the trip!
• Georgia was honored to renew a long-standing MOU with the Academie de Nancy-Metz in France this week at a signing ceremony at Mountain View High School on March 1st. Speakers at the event included State School Superintendent, Mr. Richard Woods, The honorable Mr. Louis de Corail, Consul General of France in Atlanta and members of his staff, Associate Superintendent of Schools for Gwinnett County, Mr. Jonathan Patterson and a video message from France from Madame Robin, Rector for the Academie de Nancy Metz. Special thanks to Mountain View High School and to their outstanding French teacher, Mrs. Rhonda Archer!

• A group of German Exchange students from the Wilhelm-Kaisen-Schule in Bremen Germany made a 10 day visit to Sol. C. Johnson High School in the Savannah Chatham School district during early March. It was a wonderful experience not only for the German visitors but for the students at Sol. C. Johnson HS as well. The school would especially like to express their thanks to the Savannah Chatham County Board of Education and Superintendent and our administrative team at Johnson HS have been incredibly supportive along with all the local organizations that supported the visit! Danke!

Quick Announcements!

- Georgia’s innovative International Skills Diploma Seal’s reporting deadline for qualifying students in April 15th. Every year, as part of the International Skills Diploma Seal Program, the Georgia Department of Education invites each approved ISDS High School to send a representative STAR Student to be recognized at an end of the year awards ceremony. This year, the event will be held at the Georgia Department of Education, starting at 10am on Tuesday, April 24th, 2018. The form for participating and pre-approved ISDS Schools in Georgia to submit their STAR Students that will be attending this event is now available on our website or can be accessed directly via this link. The deadline for completing this form is April 15th. If you have any additional questions, please contact Mr. Patrick Wallace, Program Specialist for World Languages and Global Workforce Initiatives at pwallace@doe.k12.ga.us

- The next DLI in a Day professional learning event has already been scheduled to take place on September 15, 2018 at Kelly Mill Elementary School in Forsyth County. You can already register for that event via this link.

- We are also delighted to invite you to attend Ga’s 5th annual Dual Language Immersion Institute which will be held at Douglas County HS on July 17th & 18th, 2018! Last year’s attendance broke all previous records and we look forward to another well attended event this year! This year’s theme is “Partnering for Success: Sharing Best Practices and learning and leading together”. We invite anyone interested in immersion education to attend and extend a special invitation to our English Partner Teachers in DLI programs across the state to share your best practices and tips for success! You can register for the event here. We also invite Presenters to submit a proposal for this year’s GADII! You can do so via this link. With 8 confirmed new DLI school starts in 2018, the need for this annual event continues to grow!
• Remember, the deadline for this year’s 1st reporting cycle for Georgia’s Seal of Biliteracy is May 1st. A guidance at a Glance document is available for you to see here.
