

Georgia Department of Education (GaDOE) Division for Special Education Services and Supports

09-02 Memorandum Guidance - Part 1

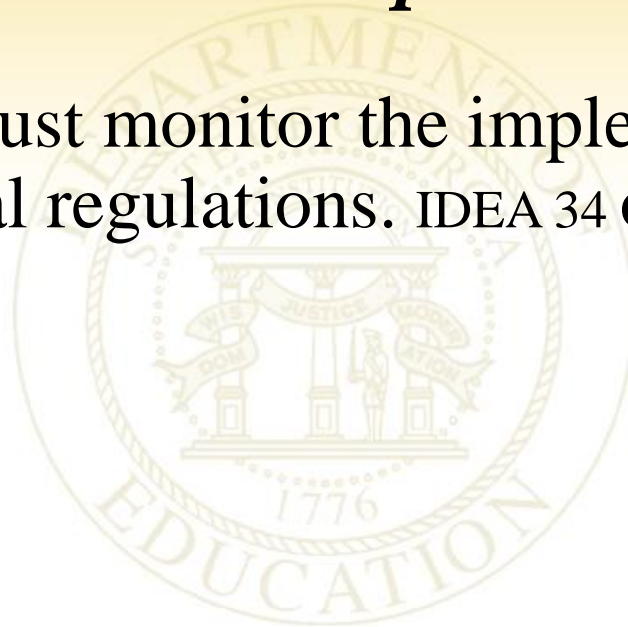

Dr. John D. Barge, State School Superintendent
"Making Education Work for All Georgians"
www.gadoe.org

What is General Supervision (GS)?

States must monitor the implementation of federal regulations. IDEA 34 CFR §300.600

Dr. John D. Barge, State School Superintendent
"Making Education Work for All Georgians"
www.gadoe.org

How will we “monitor” this implementation?

The General Supervision System must be reasonably designed to ensure the identification and correction of noncompliance in a timely manner.

Dr. John D. Barge, State School Superintendent
"Making Education Work for All Georgians"
www.gadoe.org

IDENTIFICATION OF NONCOMPLIANCE

Dr. John D. Barge, State School Superintendent
"Making Education Work for All Georgians"
www.gadoe.org

Key Question 1 - Identification

Q1. Must States identify all noncompliance regardless of the source of the data establishing noncompliance?

Dr. John D. Barge, State School Superintendent
"Making Education Work for All Georgians"
www.gadoe.org

Problem - All Sources

- A State uses a database to collect data to report on Indicator 12 (early childhood transition) for reporting purposes but failed to examine those data for the purposes of identifying noncompliance.

Dr. John D. Barge, State School Superintendent
"Making Education Work for All Georgians"
www.gadoe.org

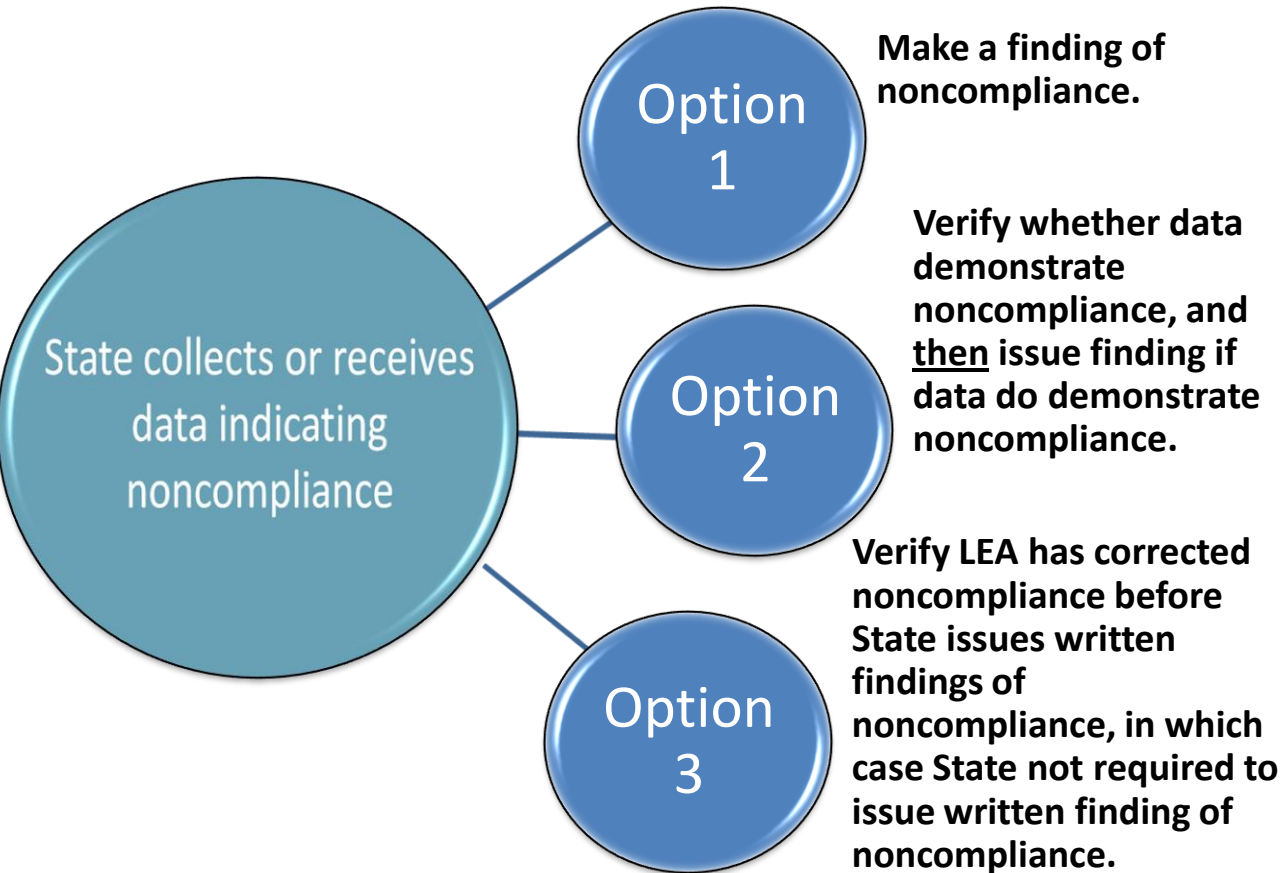

Key Question 2 - Identification

Q2. What actions must a State take if it collects or receives information indicating noncompliance?

Dr. John D. Barge, State School Superintendent
"Making Education Work for All Georgians"
www.gadoe.org

Key Question 3 - Identification

Q3. May States use “thresholds” for identification of noncompliance?

Dr. John D. Barge, State School Superintendent
"Making Education Work for All Georgians"
www.gadoe.org

Thresholds - Problem 1

- A Sample State found noncompliance in 4% of the district's student records reviewed (Indicator 13 – Secondary Transition).
- Since the district demonstrated a compliance level of 96%, the Sample State opted not to identify the district as noncompliance.

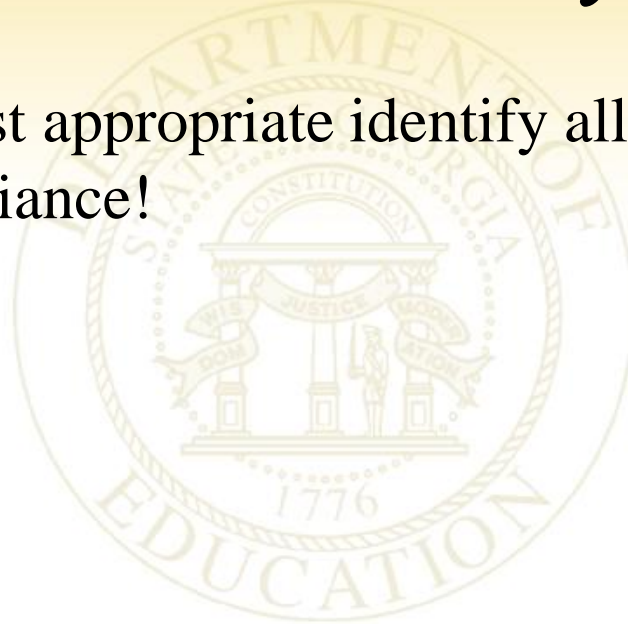

Dr. John D. Barge, State School Superintendent
"Making Education Work for All Georgians"
www.gadoe.org

Part 1 Summary

- SEAs must appropriately identify all instances of noncompliance!

Dr. John D. Barge, State School Superintendent
"Making Education Work for All Georgians"
www.gadoe.org