

Career

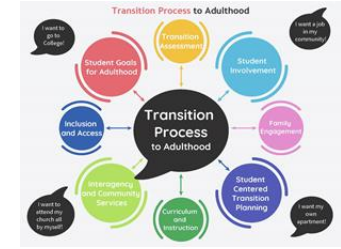

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

Sub-Category	Target Population	Activities	Name	Link	Cost
Career and Life Planning	All students with disabilities and families	Developed in part by the University of Missouri. Person Centered and Family Perspective Tools can be used as discussion guides and planning tools to map out one's future. Parental or adult guidance will be needed.	Life Course Tools	https://www.lifecoursetools.com/lifecourse-library/foundational-tools/	Free
Career Exploration and Interests	IRR students and students with mild disabilities.	The activities include a series of "brain game" assessments of talents, interests, and aptitudes. Student will receive results within 12 hours. The parent resource page (link provided) provides helpful guiding questions as the student and parent review the results. Lessons are also provided for teachers. Information and research gathered on the YouScience site remains for 10 years. Students can return as often as needed to continue planning and research.	YouScience	www.youscience.com/parents/	Free to GA. students. Contact your local YouScience Coordinator. See YouScience information on the GaDOE Transition website.
Career Exploration	IRR students and students with developmental disabilities	Students can use these handouts to watch videos about careers and then identify careers that interest them. There is a complete checklist of career pathways so that students can check off each pathway as they view the series of videos and activities (not necessarily GA. career pathways). Students can do these independently or with	Google Docs	https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1Sly_9EwwKmJK3zIRq5Mpnfk_dgP-UDQx?usp=sharing	Free

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills. The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Career

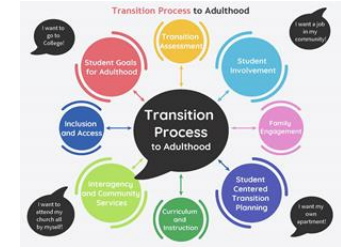

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

		guidance. Some students may need guidance and adaptations.
Career Exploration and Interest Inventory	IRR and higher functioning students with intellectual disabilities	Activities feature career videos, skills and abilities videos, interest and skills assessment and job matching. You will need Google Read/Write to read materials. May work with other read/write software.	Career One Stop	www.careeronestop.org/	Free
Career Exploration and Interest Inventory	IRR and higher functioning students with intellectual disabilities	Activities feature career videos. Careers are categorized by expected knowledge, skills, abilities, personality fit, technology, education, and job outlook. You will need Google Read/Write or a person with the student to read words for the assessment. May work with other read/write software.	My Next Move	www.mynextmove.org/explore/ip	Free
Career Exploration in Agricultural Fields	IRR students	Includes lessons on careers, interest surveys and virtual field trips. Adult guidance will make this site more interactive and beneficial for the student.	AG Explorer	https://agexplorer.com/	Free
Career Exploration and Planning	All students	Site provides assessments, resume building, goal setting, flex lessons, curriculum, and videos to guide students through career planning. Lessons and videos also include	Virtual Job Shadow	www.virtualjobshadow.com	Free for Forsyth County students. See GaDOE transition

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills). The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Career

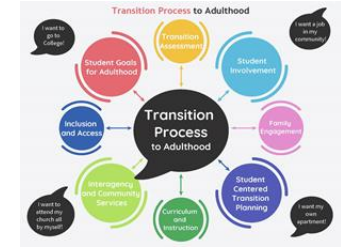

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

		soft-skills and life skills. Some students may need adult guidance			website for information for accessing Virtual Job Shadowing.
Career Research	IRR students or students on modified curriculum	Research jobs through career clusters, interests, academics, and technology. There are no lessons in this site, so navigation takes focus and/or adult guidance and supervision. This site could be used after completing a series of inventories with personal preferences and strengths. Some adult guidance needed.	O*NET OnLine	https://www.onetonline.org/	Free
Career Research, Job Readiness	All students	Site contains education learning materials. Online courses, career videos, games, academic tech skills videos/training are available on this site. Students can search independently or through the support and guidance from an instructor.	WISC Online	www.wisc-online.com	Free
Life and Career Planning and Self-Advocacy	IRR students and students with more support needs	Tool to create visuals for Dream Boards, Projects, About Me presentations and Career Planning. Teachers will need to train student on how to use the program. Some adult guidance may be needed.	Mind Meister	www.mindmeister.com	Free (upgrade for a charge)

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills. The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Career

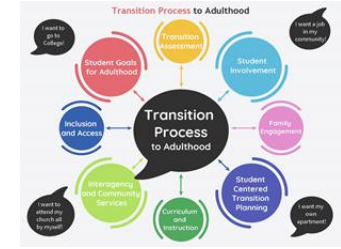

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

Planning: Online Training	All students	Some students can navigate the site, complete their journal entries, and watch the series of videos and lessons independently. However, many students will benefit from adult led conversations and guidance throughout the site as they move through the activities. There is an option for guided learning or students may choose self-guided where they can pick and choose topics. This program helps students explore talents, self-advocacy and plan for the future.	Explore Work	https://explore-work.com	Free
Transition Planning and Guidance: Curriculum and Portfolio	All Students	T-Folio is a transition portfolio tool for high school age. It is designed to guide youth in exploring, identifying, and planning their desired post-school goals. This tool represents a compilation of activities and products showcasing each youth’s ongoing transition process. It is their individual story of who they are, where they have been, and where they are headed after high school. Teacher lessons, PPT and script are provided. Easy to use and follow. Could align well with ASPIRE in MS and HS.	T-Folio	https://www.cctstfolio.com/#/	Free

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills. The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Career

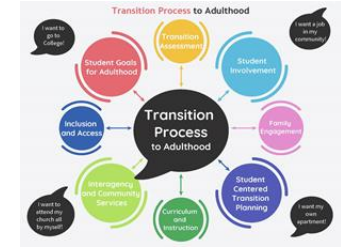

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

Transition Planning Curriculum	All HS	This website contains a curriculum-based tool helping young adults plan for life after high school. Comes with a curriculum guide.	Youthhood	http://www.youthhood.org/index.asp?utm_source=TC+Listserv&utm_campaign=9417630858-EMAIL_CAMPAIGN_2017_06_06_COPY_01&utm_medium=email&utm_term=0_76c4b93efb-9417630858-174820913	Free
Transition Planning for College and Career.	IRR Students	EnvisionIT (EIT) is an evidence-based, standards-aligned, college and career readiness curriculum for 21st century students in middle and high school. EIT is a teacher-guided, digital curriculum for students with and without disabilities focused on helping students develop key literacy and career skills. Teachers must create a free schoology account before accessing the curriculum. Access code provided.	Envision-IT	https://nisonger.osu.edu/research/envision-it/	Free
Transition Planning for College and Career.	All students HS	High school portfolio and transition activities	Welcome to High School: High School Transition	https://sites.google.com/site/highschooltransitionccsu/home/ready-set-get-working	Free

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills). The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Career

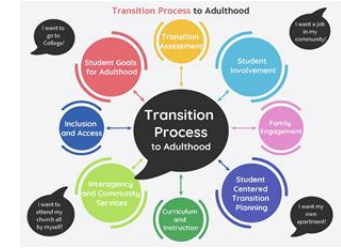

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

Transition Related Topics (multiple uses)	Parents, Educators and Students with disabilities	Provides videos and trainings for teens, parents, and educators from executive functioning on the job, preparing for transition to college, SSI, assistive technology, life skills and much more. Workshops can be viewed live or seen within the archived videos. Site also includes technology for teens club.	Pacer Center	https://pacer.org/workshops/	Free
Assessments	IRR and ID	Assessments for math and literacy workplace skills and PC hardware knowledge. Results assist students in finding careers best suited to their skills. These assessments are for career and life skills. Registration is required to keep information stored.	Ohio Means Jobs	https://jobseeker.ohiomeansjobs.monster.com/Assessments/Home.aspx	Free
Career Exploration	All students HS	Career finder and virtual tours	AgExplorer	https://agexplorer.com/#about	Free
Career Exploration		The Career Interests Game is designed to help the student match their interests and skills with similar careers. It can help them begin thinking about how their personality will fit in with specific work environments and careers.	Career Interest Game	https://career.missouri.edu/career-interest-game/	Free

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills. The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Career

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

PathSource Career, Job, School & College Search		Activities which result in career recommendations, calculate salaries and choose educational programs for career choice.	PathSource	https://apps.apple.com/us/app/pathsource-career-job-school-college-search/id905853318	Free in iPhone App Store
Career Exploration	All students HS	Career exploration includes navigating careers, serving the community, starting a business, and managing people and processes.	Khan Academy	https://www.khanacademy.org/college-careers-more	Requires creating a free account
Career and Education Planning	HS	A career and education planning guide.	Career Cruiser	http://www.fldoe.org/core/fileparse.php/5243/urlt/0047242-cruiser.pdf	Free

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills. The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.