

Life Skills

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

Sub-Category	Target Population	Activities	Name	Link	Cost
Financial Literacy	IRR	This site contains tutorials for money management, managing debt, and investing for life. Information is at a higher level and some students might need to use a reading software. Students can move independently through lessons.	Ohio Means Jobs	https://jobseeker.ohiomeansjobs.monster.com/Plant/FinancialLiteracy.aspx	Free
Financial Literacy	HS Students with developmental disabilities	Series of video lessons allow students to learn and practice financial skills at their own pace. Also includes money games for students.	My Money	https://yfloridacfo.com/mymoney/	Free
Financial Literacy	All students	This site features lessons and videos on a variety of topics including soft-skills, financial literacy, and social-emotional wellness. Assessments, resume building, goal setting, flex lessons, curriculum and videos to guide students through career planning are also available. Some students might need adult guidance.	Virtual Job Shadow	www.virtualjobshadow.com	Free for Forsyth County students. See GaDOE transition website for more information on Virtual

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills). The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Life Skills

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

					Job Shadowing.
Financial Literacy	Grades 9-12 IRR and students with intellectual disabilities.	Lessons geared toward students who want to work independently, but also provides curriculum for teachers and parents. Students with intellectual disabilities will need more modifications and supports. Additional materials can be selected and used as supplements.	High School Financial Planning Program	www.hsfpp.org	Free
Financial Literacy	All students	Lite version of the HomeBudget software. The software is limited to 20 expense entries and 10 income entries. Upgrade at a cost. Some students may need guidance or support.	Home Budget Lite	https://apps.apple.com/us/app/homebudget-lite-w-sync/id307620907	Free in iPhone App Store
Financial Planning	All students	Students answer a series of questions to see what kind of income you'll need to live the life they want.	Jumpstart Check	https://www.jumpstart.org/what-we-do/support-financial-education/reality-check/	Free
Budgeting	IRR and students with developmental disabilities	Students can use this tool to identify living expenses and determine how much income they'll need to live the life they want. Some adult guidance may be needed.	Ohio Means Jobs	https://jobseeker.ohiomeansjobs.monster.com/FundIt/BudgetCalculator.aspx	Free
Budgeting and Money Management	IRR and students with	Students can complete reading and activities online while learning about money and money management. There is a teacher's manual and worksheets can be printed off. Teacher guidance is preferred. Some	Cents and Sensibility	http://www.studymoney.us/#/AboutUs	Free

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills). The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Life Skills

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

	intellectual disabilities	students may need to use a reading software to assist with the independent reading, but accessibility tools are provided as well. Some students will need guidance on where to start, lessons to choose and teacher should follow up with conversations.
Budgeting and Money Management	Educators, parents, and students with disabilities	Visa provides a site with interactive lessons and activities to learn about saving money, budgeting, and identifying needs and wants. There are teacher lessons and student games to keep students engaged and learning.	Practical Money Skills	http://practicalmoneyskills.com/	Free but registration is required
Life Skills	All students K-12	This is a comprehensive life skills curriculum with lessons and activities for teachers or other adults. There is an initial video to train the trainer as well as side resources for parents, students and teachers. Lastly, there's a brief online learning section under resources. The lessons begin with the three fundamental skills on which all other skills can be built: communication, decision making, and goal setting.	Overcoming Obstacles	www.overcomingobstacles.org	Free - registration required
Life Skills	All students	Personal finance activities including saving and budgeting, interest and debt, investments and retirement, income and benefits, housing, car expenses, taxes, and keeping your information safe are available on this website.	Personal Finance	https://www.khanacademy.org/college-careers-more	Free- Requires creating an account.

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills). The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Life Skills

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

Life Skills Assessment	MS and HS students at-risk and on modified curriculum	Student takes a 30-minute assessment to identify relationships, work/study habits, goal setting, community resources, budgeting and planning, computer literacy and connections with adults. The activities help students identify personal, functional, independent living and employment skills to achieve long-term goals for students ages 14-21. A mentor is required and guidance is provided. This sight was created for students with autism, but can be used for other students.	Casey Life Skills	https://caseylifefskills.com	Free - registration required
College Life	IRR students - Seniors	Developed by a blogger, podcaster and college grad who provides tips, resources, and encouragement on reaching life's goals. There are tools for college success and success at life in general. Also includes 2 free courses - Developing Good Habits and Organizing your Life.	College Info Geek	http://collegeinfo geek.com	Free
Life After High School	Students with developmental disabilities	This is a 6 Video lesson series on money management, managing your health, community life, self-employment, education and getting a job. Students can click and watch videos independently, but it will be more beneficial to have adult guidance and conversation throughout the lessons.	FYI Transition	https://fyitransition-students.org	Free You must register to get access
Independence	All students grades 9 - 12	This is a series of how-to videos from a dad's perspective. Instructions include changing a tire, unclogging a sink and tool basic. Be mindful of the pop-up ad. Consider using "Tools for a Distraction Free YouTube Experiences" ( https://www.dlgwaea.org/blog/5-tools-for-a-distraction-free-	Dad, How Do I?	https://www.youtube.com/c/Dadhowdol/featured	Free

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills. The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Life Skills

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

		youtube-experience ) or Safe Youtube ( https://safeyoutube.net/ ). Some students may need supervision or guidance.
Problem Solving in a Digital World	Teachers and students	These are video lessons for students and lesson plans and tools for teachers focused on building digital learning through video and projects. Some students may need additional support.	Google Education	https://applieddigitalskills.withgoogle.com/s/en/home	Free - registration required
Transportation	All students	This curriculum was developed by the Kennedy Center to teach young adults on the autism spectrum (although all students can benefit from this curriculum) to travel independently using public transportation. Lessons and Powerpoints are provided as resources. This lesson also has some self-advocacy skills. Some students may need guidance and support.	The Kennedy Center	https://www.thekennedycenterinc.org/what-we-do/programs-services/mobility-services/publications-resources.html	Free
Visual Social Stories	Students with developmental disabilities	This is a series of visuals/social stories for all aspects of life developed by a family for their own son with autism. Focus is on academics, life skills, daily living skills and more.	Able2Learn	https://able2learn.com	Free
Digital Citizenship	All students K-12	These differentiated video series present digital safety lessons in a fun and age-appropriate manner. Younger audiences learn with Nettie, Webster, and Clicky, the internet safety robot, while tweens engage with the animated cast of NS High. For teens, real-life stories and interviews with teenagers across the country provide the basis for real-world learning.	Netsmartz	https://www.missingkids.org/netsmartz/videos	Free

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills). The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Life Skills

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

Achieving Goals	All students K-12	Assesses the behaviors and competencies youth need to achieve their long-term goals.	Casey Life Skills Resources	https://www.casey.org/casey-life-skills-resources/	Free
Transition Related Topics - multiple uses	Educators, families, and students with disabilities	Provides videos and trainings for teens, parents and educators for executive functioning on the job, preparing for transition to college, SSI, assistive technology, life skills and much more. Workshops can be viewed live or seen within their archived videos. Includes Tech for Teens Club.	Pacer Center	Pacer.org/workshops	Free
Transition	Educators and families	The goal of this transportation education curriculum is to provide educators, transition professionals, families, and others with strategies for integrating transportation content, including travel instruction, into the educational experience for students, including students with disabilities. The curriculum consists of an Introduction and nine modules.	Transportation Education Curriculum	https://www.nadtc.org/resources-publications/transportation-education-curriculum/	Free
Travel	Students with accessibility needs	This is an app for users to research accessibility at public places such as retail stores, restaurants, hotels, parks, theaters, and more, from any computer or mobile device.	Accessibility APP	https://theabilityapp.com/	Free in iPhone App Store
Travel	Students 9-12	Moovit guides you from point A to B in the easiest and most efficient way. Get train and bus times, maps, and real-time arrival times. Get step-by-step directions for optimal bus, train, metro, bike, and scooter routes.	Moovit	https://apps.apple.com/us/app/moovit-train-bus-times/id498477945	Free in iPhone App Store

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills). The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.

Life Skills

The Georgia Department of Education does not endorse any non-Georgia Department of Education websites or products contained within these pages or through external hyperlinks. These webpages and documents provide only a sampling of available resources and in no way should be considered an exhaustive list of available resources. It is at the discretion of individual districts and schools to determine appropriate resources to serve stakeholders.

Driver's Ed.	Students 9-12	DMV permit practice questions	US Driving Test	https://apps.apple.com/us/app/us-driving-knowledge-test/id859513409	Free in iPhone App Store
Driver's Ed.		Traffic signs trivia app with images. Perfect to train yourself or to improve your knowledge.	Traffic Signs Quiz	https://apps.apple.com/us/app/traffic-sign-quiz-road-trivia/id1356545832	Free in iPhone App Store

This collection of resources was created by researching other transition websites across the county, participating in webinars conducted by NACT, Wintac, DCDT, and CEC and shared resources from Facebook Groups (Transition/Life/Vocational Skills). The compilation is a collaborative effort with Susan Darlington (Forsyth County), the Metro High School Transition Consortium, and the Georgia Department of Education.