 - a. Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP): Adequate Yearly Progress is a measurement based on a series of performance goals that every school, Local Educational Agency, and state must achieve within specified timeframes in order to meet the 100% proficiency goal established by the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 ("NCLB"), subject to any amendment, waiver or reauthorization thereof.
 - b. Annual Measureable Objectives (AMOs): In defining Adequate Yearly Progress, each state sets the minimum levels of improvement, based on student performance on state standardized tests that school districts and schools must achieve within time frames specified in law in order to meet the 100% proficiency goal under No Child Left Behind. These levels of improvement are known as Annual Measurable Objectives, and they ensure that all student groups, schools, school districts, and the State as a whole reach the 100% proficiency goal by 2013-2014, subject to any amendment, waiver or reauthorization of NCLB.
 - c. Elementary and Secondary Education Act as Amended (ESEA as Amended): The federal education statute, originally passed by the U.S. Congress in 1965, that defines the role of the federal government in public education and authorizes

The Charter School acknowledges that it is without authority to, and will not, extend the faith and credit of the Local Board, the State Board, or the Department to any third party.
33. Delegation. The parties acknowledge and agree that the functions and powers of each party may be exercised only by each party and may not be delegated to a third party without written agreement by the parties.
34. Application of Amended Law. This Charter is subject to applicable federal and state laws, rules and regulations and shall be deemed amended to reflect applicable changes to those laws upon the effective date of any such change.
35. Non-Waiver. No waiver of any breach of this Charter shall be held as waiver of any other or subsequent breach.
36. Severability. If any provision of this Charter is determined to be unenforceable or invalid for any reason, the remainder of the Charter shall remain in full force and effect.

38. Governing Law and Venue. This Charter shall be governed by, subject to, and construed under the laws of the State of Georgia.
