

EMAIL COMMUNICATION SENT TO PRIVATE SCHOOLS ON GADOE PRIVATE SCHOOL LIST 05/04/2020

Greetings,

Under the CARES Act Section 18005, nonprofit K-12 private schools are eligible to receive equitable services from school districts who received funds under Section 18003 Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief Fund (ESSER).

The Georgia Department of Education State Ombudsman, Carly Covic Ambler, will be hosting a webinar Wednesday, May 6, 2020, 9-10 AM for private and public schools to go over the details of the provision of equitable services under ESSER in Georgia.

To register this event, please use the following link

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/7021746643742329100>

To proactively submit your nonprofit, K-12 private school's Intent to Participate in CARES Act ESSER Equitable Services, please complete this online form (DUE Wednesday, May 20, 2020):

<https://bit.ly/3eKGyTn>

Other Resources

- Click HERE to read sections 18003 and 18005 of the CARES Act.
- Click HERE to read the CARES Act FAQs on Equitable Services released April 30, 2020.
- Click HERE to access the Georgia Department of Education's Covid-19 Updates webpage on the GaDOE website.
- Click HERE to access the Georgia Department of Education State Ombudsman webpage on the GaDOE website.

Carly Covic Ambler

FEDERAL PROGRAMS SENIOR MANAGER

STATE OMBUDSMAN

CONSOLIDATION OF FUNDS & EQUITABLE SERVICES

GEORGIA DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

1862 Twin Towers East

205 Jesse Hill Jr. Drive, SE

Atlanta, Georgia 30334

☎ (404) 623-9599

✉ cambler@doe.k12.ga.us

🖱 www.gadoe.org

"Educating Georgia's Future"

Email correspondence to/from this email account may be considered public information and subject to release under Georgia laws.