

ENGAGING PRESENTATION TOOLS

When presenting, it is no easy task to keep your audience alert and engaged. The average adult actively listens for only about 15 to 20 minutes before losing attention. An engaged audience is more likely to hear your message and learn more during the presentation. Try some of the following tools for your next presentation!

ANIMOTO

A slide show video application that can use any still picture or video and produce movie quality videos.
