Grades 1-12 Minimum English Learner (EL) Exit and EL Reclassification Criterion

Reported by Georgia's Local Education Agencies (LEAs)

Posted July 2023

(Purpose: To be used as a reference for in-state GA transfer students.)

Chart User Guide:

- The column on the left indicates the Grades 1-12 (not kindergarten) EL exit criterion the LEA has established in writing.
- The first section in the chart below lists LEAs that align their EL exit criterion to the state's criterion for a clear exit in grades 1-12: WIDA ACCESS Overall Composite Proficiency Level (CPL) \geq 5.0.
- The rest of the sections list LEAs according to their established a minimum EL exit criterion within the state's flexibility range 4.3-4.9. All students scoring at or above this local criterion are considered for exit during an EL Reclassification meeting. During these EL Reclassification meetings, some schools have chosen to review additional objective criteria established in writing and implemented consistently across the LEA.
- This chart only reports any specific WIDA ACCESS assessment sub-scores established by some LEAs as additional EL exit criteria. Please contact the sending LEA to identify whether other sources of data were considered during the EL reclassification process.

NOTE: All LEAs using an ACCESS Overall CPL between 4.3-4.9 are also using the Decision of an EL Reclassification Team that considers whether these EL students should exit or not. Each LEA in the rows below will have additional data that the EL Reclassification Team considers before making an Exit Decision. Please check with the individual LEA if you have a question about a transfer EL student. Thank you.
