Peter and the Dragon

This is a story about a boy who saved his town from a dragon.

A long time ago, in a land far away, there lived a dragon. 13
He frightened all the people who lived in the town. Every 24 time he was hungry, someone would disappear! The king 33 offered a reward of one hundred bags of gold to anybody brave 45 enough to make the dragon stop snacking on people. 54

Peter was the son of the best baker in the land. His job was to 69 take cakes to the king's palace. Peter spent many hours wishing 80 he was brave enough to face the dragon. One day, when he was 93 planning what he could do with one hundred bags of gold, he got 106 lost on his way to the palace. Without warning, he felt the ground 119 tremble beneath him and he heard the roar of a terrible beast 131

There was the dragon showing his large teeth. Peter did not feel 143 very brave . But he gathered up his courage and said, "Please don't 155 eat me. My father is the best pastry cook in the whole land!" 168
The dragon answered with a roar. "I can bring you cakes for the 181 rest of your life!" cried Peter. The dragon stopped in the middle 193 of a roar. "Can you bring me those little cakes with the pink 206 icing?" he asked. 209

The next day, Peter returned with his father's best cakes. From 220 then on the dragon lost his taste for people and was happy to eat 234 cakes every day. Peter was happy with one hundred bags of gold! 246
