This section provides an overview of the strong focus that the ESSA has on parent and family engagement. Included in this section is the purpose of Title I, federal definitions, the responsibilities of the Department’s Family-School Partnership Program.
Purpose of Title I

Title I, Part A is a federally funded program under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). The purpose of Title I under the ESSA is to ensure that all children have a fair, equal, and significant opportunity to obtain a high-quality education and reach, at a minimum, proficiency on challenging state academic achievement standards and state academic assessments. While the ESSA has many requirements, there is a strong focus throughout the law on parent and family engagement notification and involvement, particularly as it relates to:

» Ensuring that high-quality academic assessments, accountability systems, teacher preparation and training, curriculum, and instructional materials are aligned with challenging State academic standards so that students, teachers, parents, and administrators can measure progress against common expectations for student academic achievement.

» Affording parents substantial and meaningful opportunities to participate in the education of their children.
Federal Definitions

The purpose of parental involvement under Title I, Part A is to promote active involvement among local educational agencies (LEAs), administrators, school staff, parents, family engagement coordinators or parent liaisons, community leaders, and other stakeholders working to improve student achievement and promote academic success. LEAs must ensure that strong strategies are in place to:

» Build capacity to involve parents/stakeholders in an effective partnership with the school.

» Share and support high student academic achievement.

Parental involvement has been a vital component of Title I in the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) since it became law in 1965, but the term itself had never been defined until the 2001 reauthorization of the ESEA when amended by the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act. This amendment clarified the term parental involvement as well as lawfully established that parents are the key stakeholders in their children’s education. The definition of parental involvement can be found in Section 8101(39) of the ESSA and states:

The term parental involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including and ensuring that:

» Parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning.

» Parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school.

» Parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, when appropriate, in decision-making as well as being a part of the advisory committees to assist in the education of their child.

» Other activities are carried out, such as those described in Section 1116.

This definition, in conjunction with other provisions in the ESSA, set the parameters by which State Educational Agencies (SEAs), LEAs, and schools must implement policies, programs, and procedures to involve parent(s) in Title I Programs (US ED, 2004).

In 2004, the US ED issued Parental Involvement: Title I, Part A Non-Regulatory Guidance to assist SEAs, LEAs, and schools in administering the parental involvement provisions of Title I, Part A of the ESEA. This guidance is not intended to be all-inclusive; rather, it answers questions about and clarifies aspects of the law that were brought to the attention of the U.S. Department of Education. General SEA Responsibilities
Under ESSA

The ESSA requires State Educational Agencies (SEAs) to involve parents and other stakeholders in the development of their plans for implementing federal law. The Department’s plan was approved in January 2018 by the U.S. Department of Education.

The ESSA allows SEAs to use the funds they reserve for the administration of Title I, Part A programs to meet their parent and family engagement responsibilities.

Such parent and family engagement responsibilities fall into three general categories:

1) Collecting and disseminating information to LEAs and schools regarding effective parent and family engagement practices

2) Providing technical assistance to, and monitoring the parent and family engagement policies and practices of LEAs and schools

3) Providing notice and information to parents regarding the education of their children

SEAs must ensure that LEAs and schools are made aware of effective parent and family engagement practices. Section 1111(g)(2)(F) of the ESSA states:

Each state plan shall describe how the SEA will support the collection and dissemination to LEAs and schools of effective parent and family engagement strategies including those included in the parent and family engagement policy under section 1116.

Thus, it is the responsibility of SEAs to ensure that LEAs and schools are kept abreast of effective parent and family engagement practices to increase the academic achievement of students and to lower existing barriers to parental participation.

In implementing parent and family engagement programs, activities, and procedures, SEAs, LEAs, and schools must comply with federal civil rights laws. Thus, SEAs, LEAs, and schools may not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age, consistent with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975.
Family-School Partnership Program

The Georgia Department of Education’s Family-School Partnership Program ensures that Title I, Part A parent and family engagement regulations are met with meaningful and strategic actions to build parent capacity to improve student achievement and promote academic success as mandated by the ESSA. Schools and districts must ensure that strong strategies are in place to both build capacity to involve parents/stakeholders in an effective partnership with the school and to share and support high student academic achievement. The Family-School Partnership Program believes that parents, schools, families, and communities working together can create meaningful partnerships that ultimately lead to significant gains across the board in student achievement; therefore, the goal of the Family-School Partnership Program is to increase student achievement by engaging and empowering parents to become actively involved in their children’s education across all grade levels. To achieve this goal, the Family-School Partnership Program:

» Works with partners in local school districts and throughout Georgia’s communities by supporting and providing effective and practical, research-based practices to equip parents with the best strategies and resources available to help their children succeed in school.

» Develops and delivers communications to schools and school districts on the factors that influence student success.

» Creates collaborative partnerships with external organizations and agencies that support parent and family engagement initiatives to provide needed services, supports, and resources to schools, districts, and families.

» Provides technical assistance, trainings, materials, and professional development opportunities to district and school administrators, family engagement coordinators or liaisons, and other family engagement professionals on parent and family engagement compliance as mandated by law as well as on family engagement strategies.

» Monitors Title I schools and districts to ensure that schools and districts receiving Title I, Part A funds are in compliance with parent and family engagement requirements by implementing programs, activities, and procedures designed to involve parents through policies and plans.

» Collaborates and coordinates plans with other Department programs to ensure that parent and family engagement is the focus of various initiatives across the agency and that school districts are equipped with knowledge of these programs to share with parents and their children.

Overarching Requirements

Certain provisions of Title I, Part A parent and family engagement law must be addressed by both the local educational agency (LEA) and Title I schools, as they apply to requirements and programs at the district and school-levels. These overarching requirements can be found by reviewing the Compliance Implementation Rubric Rating System on the following pages.

This rubric provides a comprehensive list of the parent and family engagement provisions that districts and schools are required to meet as part of their parent and family engagement programs as well as examples of innovative and exceptional practices. It serves as a tool that will help districts and schools review the requirements and monitor their progress and documentation in implementing parent and family engagement activities, programs, and procedures.

The rubric is not used by the Georgia Department of Education (GaDOE) Cross-Functional Monitoring team and is an optional tool for LEAs and Title I schools to examine their progress. For the Cross-Functional Monitoring Indicators Document, visit the Federal Programs website at: http://www.gadoe.org/School-Improvement/Federal-Programs/Pages/default.aspx and click on “Federal Programs Monitoring”.

Districts and schools will find information regarding the parent and family engagement budget as part of this section because parent and family engagement funds are allocated at both the district and school-level. For questions about Title I parent and family engagement budgets, visit the Title I, Part A’s Other Resources webpage at: http://www.gadoe.org/School-Improvement/Federal-Programs/title-i/Pages/OtherResources.aspx or coordinate with your district’s Federal Programs Director to contact the designated GaDOE Title I Area Specialist.

Compliance Implementation Rubric Rating System

These compliance implementation rubrics could be used by Georgia Title I schools and districts to assist them in understanding and meeting Title I parent and family engagement compliance monitoring requirements. In addition, the implementation rubrics will help schools carry out effective and strategic family engagement actions tied to compliance mandates to build parent leadership and capacity. To use:

1) Refer to the checked box at the top of each rubric to determine if the family engagement requirement should be completed at the district-level, school-level, or both.

2) Read the identified family engagement requirement, and review the listed compliance monitoring documentation – check the boxes for documentation that your program maintains.

3) Review the implementation rubric to determine your program’s level of implementation for the identified family engagement requirement.

4) Rate each family engagement requirement as Not Compliant, Meets Compliance, Innovative Implementation, or Exceptional Implementation.

5) Determine action steps to address each area that does not meet compliance, and enhance current family engagement plans to improve current compliance practices.
Please note that while the innovative and exceptional implementation ratings are reflective of strategic and effective family engagement actions, they are not all-inclusive. Schools and districts are encouraged to implement other innovative and exceptional family engagement actions as well. Use of the rubric on the following pages is optional.

The LEA must conduct, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parent and family engagement policy in improving the academic quality of the schools served under this part, including identifying barriers to greater participation by parents in activities authorized by this section (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background); the needs of parents and family members to assist with the learning of their children, including engaging with school personnel and teachers; strategies to support successful school and family interactions; and use the findings of such evaluation to design evidence-based strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary, the parent and family engagement policies described in this section.

Compliance Documentation

Parent and Family Engagement Budget Survey Sample

Parent and Family Engagement
Budget Survey
Achieve Elementary School
Georgia School District
April 15, 2019

Dear Parents and Family Members,

We value your input! As a parent of a child who receives Title I services in our school, you have the right to give input about how the school district budgets and spends its Title I Parent and Family Engagement money. Over the last few weeks, our school held various meetings with parents and family members to revise our school’s Parent and Family Engagement policy for next school year. We hope you had the chance to participate in one of these meetings. In the meetings, we discussed the following:

1. Parents and family members stated that they like having a district parent coordinator who is a liaison for them and provides family engagement opportunities at the school.
2. Parents and family members have asked for a place at the school where they could meet and learn how to better support their child’s learning.
3. Parents and family members asked for more resources on how to help their child at home.
4. Parents and family members would like to have a workshop on helping their child with math.
5. Parents and family members did not find the 123 Vendor Program helpful to their child’s learning. Many parents and family members did not participate in the program, and those that did found it hard to use.

We have $30,000 in the Title I Parent and Family Engagement budget. Last year, we spent the money this way:

2018-2019 Parent and Family Engagement Budget

- Translations and Interpretation for Title I Parent Meetings: 10%
- 123 Parent Engagement Vendor Program: 20%
- Family Workshop Materials: 8%
- Printing and Communications: 12%
- District Family Coordinator: 50%
This year, given our parents’ request to have a space where they could meet and learn how to better support their child’s learning, we would like to create a family resource center at the school. Therefore, we would like to stop using the 123 Vendor Program and use that money towards supplies and materials for the family resource center. We would like to spend the Title I Parent and Family Engagement budget this way:

!2019-2020 Parent and Family Engagement Budget

Do you agree with how we have budgeted parent and family engagement funds for this school year?

□ Yes
□ No If no, why not? ____________________________________________________________

Do you have any other suggestions for the use of funds? These will be taken into consideration for this school year and future school years.

Please return this from to your child’s teacher, or drop it by the school office by April 30, 2019. If you have further questions, please feel free to contact Sandra Smith, Georgia School District’s Family Coordinator, at (222) 222-2222 or ssmith@gaschools.us.

Thank you for taking the time to complete this very important survey. Your feedback is greatly valued and sincerely appreciated.
