How do we select strategies?

Strategies Must Be Strategically Selected and Applied

Think about the research linking students with disabilities and dropouts:

- Students with IEPs are:
 - 85% more likely to repeat a grade
 - 3 times more likely to drop out of school
 - 2 times more likely to be suspended
- Chronic absenteeism is a problem with 19% of students with IEPs missing three or more weeks of school each year.
- Only 65% of students with IEPs graduate in four years.

Why literacy? The power of literacy

“Underdeveloped literacy skills are the number one reason why students are retained, assigned to special education, given long term remedial services, and why they fail to graduate from high school.”

Vincent Ferradino and Gerald Tirozzi, former Executive Directors of NAESP, NASSP

From My Kids/Your Kids to OUR Kids

TWO STRATEGIES:

1. Literacy for ALL

2. Engaging the Faculty in Professional Dialogue: Structured Discussion Groups

CTE WORKS FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

- High school students involved in CTE are more engaged, perform better and graduate at higher rates.
- Taking one CTE class for every two academic classes minimizes the risk of students dropping out of high school.
- The average high school graduation rate for students concentrating in CTE programs is 93 percent, compared to an average national freshman graduation rate of 80 percent.
- 91 percent of high school graduates who earned 2-3 CTE credits enrolled in college.

Top 10 Indicators for Dropping Out

- Poor academic performance linked to retention
- Chronic Absenteeism
- Poverty
- Ethnicity/Race
- Limited English Proficiency
- Urban Schools
- Rural Schools
- Teen Sexual Activity
- Disruptive Students
- Children with Special Needs
