2020
Fall Virtual Instructional Leadership Conference

REIMAGINING EDUCATION DURING COVID-19 AND BEYOND

The Office of School Improvement invites you to attend our two-day virtual conference where participants will receive information on new and practical resources from divisions across the Georgia Department of Education to support improvement efforts.

Recommended Audience:
Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents, Curriculum Directors, Principals, Assistant Principals, School Improvement Specialists, Instructional Coaches, and Teacher Leaders

Dates and Times:
October 6, 2020 | 9:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
October 7, 2020 | 9:00 a.m. - 1:05 p.m.

Registration Information:
Registration information will be posted on the School and District Effectiveness (SDE) Events and Conferences webpage on September 4, 2020. See www.gadoe.org/SDEevents
There is no cost associated with this conference.

Session Delivery:
All sessions will be offered live and recorded for on-demand access following the conference. Recordings and presentation documents will be located on the SDE Events and Conference webpage.

CONCURRENT SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

- GaDOE Agencywide Updates and Resources
- Maximizing Virtual Instruction and Interventions
- Curriculum Resources and Instructional Strategies
- Restorative Practices
- Assistive Technology Resources and Support
- Supporting Teachers with an Effective Data Analysis Model
- Selecting and Evaluating Evidence-based Interventions
- Data Literacy