Teacher Mentoring	Proficient Level of Development	Data Collection	Notes and Examples of Evidences
Overview: An effective induction program recognizes the importance of creating a systematic process for the recruitment, selection, training, and support of qualified mentors who provide school-based support for induction phase teachers. The New Teacher Center states, "The recruitment and selection of mentors is arguably the single most important task facing the teacher induction program's leadership. Highly trained and supportive mentors can accelerate the development of high-achieving classroom teachers and improve student achievement."	Guideline 1  The mentors will be recruited and selected based on established mentor guidance. Required Components <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Georgia Department of Education (GaDOE) provides guidance for the recruitment and selection of mentors.</li> <li>2. The district will establish mentor recruitment and selection criteria.</li> <li>3. Mentors have the ability to provide support in a variety of areas such as discipline, management, instructional practices, content, self-reflection, and measuring student success.</li> </ol> Guideline 2  An on-going mentor training program will be developed which is differentiated, flexible, and research based. Required Components <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. All stakeholders in the induction process will be informed of their roles and responsibilities.</li> <li>2. The mentor training program design will be based on the understanding that needs and skills are developmental and differentiated for mentors.</li> <li>3. The mentor's professional learning will be provided based on a needs assessment, collected data, or identified needed areas of growth.</li> </ol>

Teacher On-going Performance Assessment	Proficient Level of Development	Data Collection	Notes and Examples of Evidences
Overview: On-going performance assessment is a cycle that may continue for up to two years. The cycle includes: identifying an Induction Phase Teacher Support Team, conducting a diagnostic assessment, developing an induction plan, and providing evidence of growth on the Teacher Assessment on Performance Standards (TAPS). The induction phase teacher, along with the Teacher Induction Support Team, reviews multiple sources of data to revise the induction plan for the second year.	Guideline 1  Induction Phase Teacher Support Team will include at a minimum: a mentor, the school principal or designee, and when possible, an external support agency representative (i.e., higher education, regional educational service agency, district level personnel). Required Components <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Induction Phase Teacher Support Team will be created at the direction of a school level administrator.</li> <li>2. The Induction Phase Teacher Support Team will be formed at the beginning of the school year and as needed when new teachers are hired throughout the remainder of the school year.</li> </ol>
