

Professional Development: Three Tiles

1. Access SLDS. Click PD (Professional Development) on the menu bar.

2. Three tiles will be displayed: PD Collections, My Progress, and My Transcripts.

3. The PD Collections tile displays professional development modules that are available for self-assignment.

4. The My Progress tile displays professional development modules that you have self-assigned and not completed.

5. The My Transcripts tile allows you to enter information about professional development modules that you have completed as well as other professional development completed offline.
