

Good afternoon world language professionals!

A Reminder: These updates are archived on the bottom of our professional development page here and the calendar has been updated below.

- Looking for a job? – Be sure to check out our openings listed below.
- We believe teachers are superheroes! Check out the latest video from the Georgia Department of Education in which we introduce you to some of our heroes!
- We are now accepting proposals for the first ever World Language Fall Forum on Oct 27th in Pickens County! Come join us as we gather together with educators from surrounding districts and states to share best practices and learn from each other in the beautiful north Georgia mountains! Come for the professional development but stay and experience late October and the beautiful fall foliage! We are now accepting session proposals via this link. Registration is free and can be accomplished via this link! We hope to see you there!
- A reminder – the Deadline for the 2nd cycle of reporting for year 2 of the historic Georgia Seal of Biliteracy is September 1st. Schools are asked to submit seal requests via our reporting link. The first cycle saw the awarding of 1092 Seals in 11 different languages. (doubling last year's numbers) Remember, this cycle is to distribute seals to those students who are earning the Seal of Biliteracy retroactively based upon their scores on the AP or IB exams. For additional guidance on the Seal reporting process, please consult our Guidance at a Glance document located here or reach out to us with questions.
- We are now accepting proposals for the next upcoming DLI in a Day professional development opportunity which will take place Sept 15th at Kelly Mill ES in Forsyth County. We are now accepting proposals for that PD via this link. More information can be found on our home page via this link. You can also consult our Guidance at a Glance document here or reach out to us with further questions.
- Both the Georgia Seal of Biliteracy and the International Skills Diploma Seal recently received a makeover! We are extremely proud to present these Seals for students all across Georgia!
- Have you gotten your badge yet? The Georgia Department of World Languages is happy to announce the opening of the first of several online courses under development designed to introduce world language teachers and administrators to the NCSSFL-ACTFL Can-Do Statements. These courses are being developed in partnership with NCSSFL & ACTFL and we are excited to offer them free to anyone and everyone in the United States and beyond. The first course, Getting Started with Can-Do Statements, is available now and you can consult this link for instructions on how to log in and earn your badge! The 2nd course will be available in a few weeks and the final course is expected to be completed by

Come join us on Oct 27th at Pickens High School for the World Language Fall Forum!

Georgia's Seal of Biliteracy was established in 2016.

Georgia's International Skills Diploma Seal was established in 2015.

September! The course is free and recommended for all who want to learn more about this framework and its implications for stakeholders.

- For the first time in Georgia history, there are now over 5,200 students involved in Dual Language Immersion Programs in Georgia. This year Georgia saw an expansion of 13 programs and the addition of two new systems, Forsyth and Savannah-Chatham Counties. In addition, an initial matched comparison study by the Georgia Department of Education has confirmed that students in these programs are meeting or exceeding the state average on the 3rd grade milestones testing in both Language Arts and Math.
- We are happy to announce new world language educator professional development training workshops in southern Georgia and in the Metro region in collaboration with Georgia's RESAs in those areas. The dates for those trainings are below. Additional PD workshops will be forthcoming. We look forward to seeing you there!

Have you gotten your first badge yet on the NCSSFL-ACTFL Can-Do Statements? The 2nd Course is coming soon!
