

Name: _____ 2003 AP Literature Exam FRQ1 (Eros poems): Self-Assessment

Evaluate your own essay's elements. Highlight: (1) answering the prompt in yellow, (2) literary devices in pink, (3) textual evidence in blue, (4) elevated diction.

What is the primary task(s) for this prompt? Express as question(s) in your own words; do not repeat prompt.
How did you answer the prompt ? Cite specific words and phrases from your essay.
What literary devices did you employ to analyze in your essay?
How many direct quotations from the text did you use as evidence? What was your most compelling evidence?
How many body paragraphs did you organize your essay into? What was the unifying focus of each body paragraph?

Compare your essay to samples: 8 O, 7 C, 6 G, 5 K, 4 DD, 3 JJ. Explain which two sample essays yours is most like and why.

sample	central idea(s) & complexity	development & organization	amount of text evidence	depth of literary analysis	level of diction

Score of your essay based on rubric and samples: _____ Primary reasons why your essay earns this score:

- I would like my essay graded and incorporated into my average.
- I would like to practice more and write another essay under AP-Exam time constraints during IF Rotation period.